

Text Messaging

We have a legal obligation to keep you informed of any important messages relating to the Coronavirus pandemic and other employment issues. From time to time we may do this by sending you text messages.

In addition to this, we would also like to keep in touch with you to keep you informed and up to date about things that are happening at site, for example, to inform you of an event on site, or ask you to vote for Greencore Way Awards, but for these text messages we need your permission.

If you would like us to keep in touch with you by text to let you know about things that are happening at site, please let us know by filling in the details and handing it to HR.

For more information, please speak to your Line Manager or HR.

You can opt-out of these additional messages at any time by contacting the HR Team.

Name: _____

Mobile Number: _____

Please note, if you do not wish to give your permission to site updates, we still have a legal obligation to inform you of urgent messages relating to the Coronavirus and other important employment issues which we may do by text.

If you have any issues around how your personal data is handled at Greencore, or for more details about your rights under Data Protection law, please contact data.protection@greencore.com